

UDL Thesis Publication | 2023

Pre-Order Details

Book Name: UDL Thesis Publication | 2023

ISBN: 978-93-6128-048-1

Description:

The UDL Thesis Publication- 2023 stands as an indispensable compendium for professionals, academics, and students engaged in urban design, landscape, architecture, and planning. This meticulously curated volume presents a rich tapestry of innovative projects, drawing from the best of post-graduate and under-graduate talent across 20 diverse countries. It encapsulates the forefront of global trends and research in urban development, making it a pivotal reference in the field.

This edition features 35 meticulously selected thesis projects, each exemplifying unique insights, innovative methodologies, and creative solutions in urban design and planning. The publication is divided into four thematic sections: Urban Renewal, Urban Landscape, Urban Management, and Urban Network, offering a multifaceted view of contemporary urban challenges and solutions.

Beyond its academic and professional utility, the UDL Thesis Publication- 2023 serves as a source of inspiration, showcasing a range of visionary ideas and practical approaches to urban development. With a total of 260 pages, the book is presented in a user-friendly paperback format, making it both accessible and convenient for a wide range of readers.

Book Type: Paperback

Total pages: 260

Themes: Urban Renewal, Urban Landscape, Urban Management and Urban Network

Thesis Published: 35

Key Features:

- Total of 35 meticulous thesis projects, reflecting a global perspective.
- Four thematic sections addressing critical aspects of urban development.

WhatsApp

+91-7017673206 (India)

Email

contact@urbandesignlab.in

Instagram

@urbandesign.lab

- Contributions from over 20 countries, highlighting diverse design approaches and contexts.
- A user-friendly paperback format for easy navigation and reference.

Preorder Guidelines:

1. Pre-orders for the paperback book will ship after July 1, 2024, with immediate access to the index and abstracts upon ordering.
2. Shipping charges, calculated post pre-order registration, vary based on destination and will be communicated separately via email.
3. A confirmation email with order details and access to thesis abstracts will be sent following preorder placement.
4. Debit/ Credit Card and PayPal payment options are available for pre-ordering the book and payment of the shipping fees later during the preorder process.
5. International orders may incur additional customs duties and taxes, which are the responsibility of the recipient.
6. Accurate shipping and contact information are essential to avoid delivery delays or issues.
7. Any changes to the shipping schedule or important updates will be communicated via the provided contact details.
8. Our customer support team is available for any queries or assistance regarding your preorder process via contact@urbandesignlab.in.

This publication is not just a book; it's a global dialogue in urban design and planning, making it a must-have for anyone keen on understanding and shaping the future of urban spaces.

WhatsApp

+91-7017673206 (India)

Emailcontact@urbandesignlab.inInstagram@urbandesignlab